* Hymn	Milwaukee	Welsh Hymnal, 6

Prayer of Confession: Lord, though the world has been gripped by trouble since the early days outside the Garden of Eden, and life has often been short and tormented, You have given us a vision of a day beyond the terrors, a day when the heavens and earth will be new again, a day when the sound of weeping will give way to delight, a time when all creation will live in peace, and people will long enjoy the fruits of their labors. Help us to hold to that vision when our world is shaken. Strengthen us for the telling of Your truth, and for keeping to Your path, that we might not become weary in doing what is right, as You desire for us to do. In Jesus' Name we pray. Amen. (Let us now have a moment of silence to offer our personal prayers of confession.)

*Apostle's Creed: I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Rev. Thomas Emery "Faith Enough" Revelation 21:1-7 Salem Presbyterian Church November 1, 2015

Like the believers of John's day, faithful Christians journey and find themselves to be "outsiders" in modern culture. The world around us is increasingly propelling God to the periphery. Fewer and fewer people know the Bible or are interested in its teaching. It is okay to be religious, but we are told to not share your faith. It is nice to go to church, but don't let it interfere with the work schedule or the youth soccer league games. Speaking out on biblical values can be tolerated so long as we remain "politically correct" and don't "offend." Historically, God's people have always journeyed with the tension of living in the world but not of it. Always we must keep in mind the true citizenship professed at our baptism — our citizenship in God's Kingdom.

TEACHING POINTS

Teaching Point 1: Heaven is real. This is our encouragement.

Teaching Point 2: In heaven, everything will be right.

Teaching Point 3: We will be relational in heaven. This is our comfort on All Saints Day.

Teaching Point 4: We will be rewarded in heaven.

THIS WEEK'S MEMORY VERSE

⁴ "He will wipe every tear from their eyes, and there will be no more death or sorrow or crying or pain. All these things are gone forever." (Revelation 21:4 NLT)

ACTION POINT

People normally conceive of Revelation as a wild, strange book that somehow predicts everything that will ever happen if you could only figure it out. Because death is no more, so mourning and crying and pain will be no more for the first things have passed away. God is in charge and makes all things new. It is then airtight with a promise, the promise of one who has conquered death. Revelation is where God finally overcomes all the forces of chaos and darkness and institutes His rule. The Book of Revelation should inspire us to have hope in our fallen world where nothing is perfect.
