Call to Worship Psalm 138 565

*Hymn: Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee 38

Prayer of Confession: Holy God, You call us to live to live by faith. You call us to place our trust in You and to live according to Your direction. Yet, we want life to make sense from a human point of view. You call us to feel the mystery of life, and to marvel at the power of Your love. Yet, it's not easy to accept Your promise that everything old has passed away. It's hard to live by faith. Forgive us, Holy Maker of reality. Forgive us for playing god instead of accepting our humanity. We pray in the Name of Jesus Christ. Amen. (Let us now have a moment of silence to offer our personal prayers of confession).

Sermon: "God Looks at the Heart" Rev. Thomas Emery

*Apostle's Creed: I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit; the holy Catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Rev. Thomas Emery
“God Looks at the Heart” 1 Samuel 15:34-16:13
Salem Presbyterian Church
June 17, 2018

The Lord places a higher priority on obedience than He does on religious rituals. A proper relationship with God cannot be guaranteed only through formal religious behavior such as sacrifice or prayer rituals (see Isa. 1:11–15). As Samuel tells Saul, one can have a vibrant, healthy relationship with God only if one is fully submissive to God’s moral and ethical standards. We show that we love God by fully obeying God.

TEACHING POINTS

First. Our obedience to God is more important to God than going through formal religious rituals.

Second. If you are disobedient to God, God may take away your special blessings He has granted to you.

Third. A meaningful relationship with God is possible only if we love others in tangible, practical ways.

THIS WEEK’S MEMORY PASSAGE

But the LORD said to Samuel, “Don’t judge by his appearance or height, for I have rejected him. The LORD doesn’t see things the way you see them. People judge by outward appearance, but the LORD looks at the heart” (1 Samuel 15:7 NLT).

ACTION POINT

God demands that we come to Him on His terms, not our terms. Obedience to the commandments of God is the foundation to having a vital loving relationship with God. This figuratively works out like the shape of a cross that is up and down as well as to the right and to the left. A meaningful relationship with God (the vertical line) is not possible unless one obeys God’s command to love others in tangible, practical ways (the horizontal line). For instance, Jesus teaches that we cannot expect to receive God’s forgiveness if we are not willing to forgive others (Matt. 6:14–15). You must truly love others, if you want to get right with God, and God will look at the purity of your heart to see if you are living by His commands. To be in God’s love and blessings, let us approach God the way He tells us to approach Him.
